

ACS Gas Training & Qualifications: Domestic Gas Package (CCN1, CENWAT, HTR1, CKR1)

Adult

Employer Training

We provide full training and assessment for a wide range of ACS Gas Qualifications. You may also undertake a refresher course or introductory training prior to assessment if needed in our state-of-the-art training facilities at Cornwall College Camborne.

Training is not a prerequisite to assessment however and you may just apply for the assessment and certificate elements of these qualifications.
